Experiences you'll have

Winter journey to Yakutia

Yakutia is the most remote northern region of the Far East. In winter, along with the fabulous northern nature, you can see her Majesty the Northern Lights here! You don't have to go far to get it – it's here, not far from you.

The proposed tourist route invites you to plunge into the world of people living on the Arctic tundra, see their identity, culture, and get acquainted with the traditions and customs of the northerners.

You can see the Aurora in Yakutia for eight months of the year, and it shows its color representations here in Yakutia as well as in other countries of the North. Our region stands out from others with its virginity and naturalness – everything is real here!

During the tour, you will have four whole days to hunt for Aurora. Along the route, you will visit the capital of the Republic of Sakha Yakutia, the city of Yakutsk, the center of the Ust-Yansky district, the village of Deputatsky, Lena Pillars and get acquainted with the way of life, culture and traditions of the indigenous peoples of the North.

FAQ

Who will be my guide

One guide and one driver accompany a group of tourists. Instructors with great experience will help traverse the route safely and comfortably. They are ready for any unexpected situation: they finished first aid Red Cross courses. The guide has a satellite phone for communication with the Emergency department in case of force majeure, as well as a first aid kit with necessary medicines.

Meals

The cost of the tour includes three meals per day, except for lunches and dinners in Yakutsk restaurants (guests order from the menu and pay for themselves, +25-35 EURO per person for lunch/dinner). There are also light snacks during long journeys (hot tea and coffee, sandwiches with cheese/sausage/fish, fruit, sweets).

Also, meals on Lena Pillars are not included in the price.

If you are a vegetarian, please inform the manager when booking the tour.

What will the weather be like

There are frosts from -30 to -40°C in Yakutsk, and extremely low temperatures up to -55°C may occur in Deputatsky. As a rule, there are no strong winds, the weather is usually sunny.

Taking into account the severe weather conditions, the travel route is composed in such a way that you will not have to spend a lot of time outside. You will always have a car nearby, where you can warm up and drink hot tea or coffee. After climbing the Lena pillars, you can warm up and have lunch in a warm cafe.

What transport is used on the route

All transfers along the route will be organized on a comfortable Toyota

Hiace minibus (with capacity of 11 people).

Mobile communication on the route

Mobile communication will only be available while your staying at the towns and villages. In Yakutsk, there is mobile Internet and Wi-Fi in the hotel.
