Across the Northern lands

Biking tour to the Arkhangelsk region

Discover the unique world of the Northern Russian culture, visiting the small villages of the Arkhangelsk region. Natural sights that are millions of years old have been preserved here. You will have a bike ride to the famous historical places, wooden architectural monuments and sacred springs.

Experiences you'll have

Bike tour to Kenozero National Park

Riding a bike from a one ancient village to another, you will admire the beauty of the Northern nature and get acquainted with the culture of this region and history, that covers several centuries.

To join this tour you need to be in a good physical shape, because you will have daily routes of 40-50 km without car support

For 7 days of travelling you will:

- see the unique monuments of Northern architecture of XVII-XVIII centuries: tent churches with bell towers, merchant houses and original nordic peasant huts
- take a ride through the holy places of Oshevsk: you will see the sacred groves and springs, as well as the boulders which are considered to have healing power
- visit the Porzhenski Pogost — a unique wooden architectural ensemble, located on the lake's bank
- participate in folk art masterclasses — you will try to create a Kargopol traditional clay toy and a peasant rag doll
- admire the scenery of Kenozero National Park with picturesque lakes and rivers
- visit the old believers' cave

Note: for a group of 5 people or more, we can organize a reduced 4-day program at any convenient date — let the manager know when it is more convenient for you to go.
